Details
Blueberry filling. With their high content in real fruit and incredibly soft spreadable texture, Irca fruit spreads are perfectly suitable for fillings, either before or after baking.

Description
oven resistant blueberry filling having spreadable consistency.

Denomination
semi-finished product for confectionery use.

Directions for use the structure of the product allows its direct employment with pastry bags having right nozzle or with mechanical dosing machines. Do not mix or beat in planetary as this can cause negative effects on the oven stability.
