

CHOCOLATE GANACHE FOR CUTTING PRALINES (BASIC RECIPES)

Chocolate ganache to make cutting pralines.

Final composition

- Melt the chocolate at 40°C.
- Boil the cream with honey or ZUCCHERO INVERTITO and add them little by little into the chocolate, mixing with a hand blender.
- When the ganache reaches a temperature of 35-40°C, add the butter and mix until you get a perfect emulsion.
- Pour directly into the special ganache box on a baking tin with baking paper and let it crystallize for at least 12 hours at a temperature of 10-15 ° C.
- Mold and chablon the two surfaces with non-tempered chocolate.
- Print with a pastry cutter or cut with the appropriate "quitar cutter" of the desired shape and cover with tempered chocolate.
