(hereinafter, jointly referred to as the "Joint Controllers").

The Joint Controllers can also be contacted at the e-mail address privacy@ircagroup.com.

2. Data processing purposes, legal basis and data retention relating to processing carried out by Joint Controllers

What is the data processing purpose?	What is the legal basis of the data processing?	How long do we keep the data?
The data provided by filling in the form will be processed for registration to the website, which, in certain cases, entitles you to take part in advanced training, specialisation and courses aimed at professionals in the field of chocolate, pastry, bakery and ice-cream making.	The legal basis is the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party.	The data will be stored until unsubscription from the website.
To send, by e-mail, commercial communications and advertising material about the latest news, products and services of Joint Controllers or for the purpose of reporting initiatives and events, such as participation in fairs and congresses, satisfaction questionnaires, as well as carrying out statistical and/or market research.	The legal basis for processing is the consent, optional and withdrawable at any time, given by the data subject.	For 4 years, without prejudice to the right to withdrawal of consent, also by clicking on the unsubscribe link in each email or in the personal area of the website www.ircagroup.com .
Once the aforementioned time periods have elapsed, the data will be destroyed or anonymized consistent with the technical procedures for deletion and back-up, without prejudice to Joint Controllers' purpose of protecting their rights and interests, including from an accountability perspective.

Data processing purposes, legal basis and data retention relating to processing carried out by Irca S.p.A. as data controller.

What is the data processing purpose?	What is the legal basis of the data processing?	How long do we keep the data?
Communications of data to Irca's distributors and professional equipment suppliers to be processed as autonomous data controllers for their marketing purposes.	The legal basis for the processing is the consent given by the data subject, pursuant to Article 6.1(a) of the GDPR.	Until communication to third parties. Once the aforementioned time period has elapsed, the data will be destroyed or anonymized consistent with the technical procedures for deletion and back-up, without prejudice to Irca S.p.A.'

		purpose of protecting its rights and interests, including from an accountability perspective.

3. Data provision

We would like to inform you that the provision of data marked with an asterisk (*) is necessary; therefore, any refusal to provide them will make it impossible to register to the website.

4. By whom the data are processed and to whom they are transmitted

Your data are processed by employees and/or collaborators of the Joint Controllers or solely Irca S.p.A., expressly authorized and instructed to process the data.

Your data are processed, on behalf of the Joint Controllers or on behalf of Irca S.p.A., by third parties who provide performance or services instrumental to the purposes outlined in this policy, to whom appropriate operational instructions are given and designated as data processors (such as, for example, the website company and marketing agencies and companies that offer mass mailing services and website maintenance).

Your data may be processed by third parties acting as autonomous data controllers entitled to receive the data, such as distributors, public authorities or professional firms.

5. Data transfer

Your data may be transferred by European Joint Controllers to countries outside the European Union (EU) or the European Economic Area (EEA). Where such countries have not been deemed adequate by the European Commission through a decision under Art. 45 of the GDPR, the "transfer tools" referred to in Art. 46 of the GDPR (such as standard contractual clauses) will be used, assessing whether "additional measures" are in place to ensure a level of protection substantially equivalent to that required by EU law.

6. Data subjects' rights

Data subjects may exercise the following rights against each Joint Controller or, for processing carried out by Irca S.p.A. as independent data controller:

- i) request access to data concerning them and information relating to the purposes of the processing, categories of personal data, etc.;
- ii) request the deletion of data if the Joint Controllers no longer have the right to process them;
- iii) obtain the rectification of inaccurate data or the integration of incomplete data;
- iv) obtain the limitation of processing (i.e. the temporary subjection of the data to the sole storage operation);
- v) receive the data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided (portability right);
- vi) withdraw any consent given at any time and object to receiving commercial communications also by clicking on the unsubscribe link at the bottom of each e-mail, or through the personal area of the website.

Furthermore, data subjects have the right to access to the essential content of the Joint Controllers agreement mentioned in paragraph 1 above.

These rights can be exercised by sending a communication to each Joint Controller or to Irca S.p.A. at the contact points indicated in paragraph 1 or to the e-mail address privacy@ircagroup.com

Finally, data subjects have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority in the Member State in which they habitually reside or work or in the State in which the alleged violation occurred.
